A valuable member of the sales team who has helped Chancellors maintain their status as number one agent in the area. Shelley is married and lives locally.

'After having a happy and successful career with Chancellors, I decided that I had not seen enough of the world and decided to go off and explore for a couple of years.

On my return it hit home that it was time to get myself back to work again and build a life here. Having been in the Estate Agency business for around 15 years it made sense for me to go back to a career that I know and loved and Chancellors were my first point of call!

Having worked for other Estate agents in the past, I can truly say that I have found my soulmate in Chancellors! They treat me as an individual and allow me to do what I am good at which is SELLING!

I love the incentives, which allow me to top up my earnings each quarter as well as offering incentives on third party referrals throughout the year. As a sales person this is VERY attractive to me. I have previously won a lot of competitions and should be on target this quarter to win £1,000 for exchanges.

Chancellors were the only company that I considered whilst planning my return, as the company keeps me content in my work, offers on-going training and last but not least, "keeps me happy in my pocket" as my earning potential is not capped!

Long may it continue!'
